

We Are New York's Top Accounting Firm Representing Co-ops and Condos

At Czarnowski & Beer we place a major focus on cooperatives and condominiums and as a result of serving this sector of the real estate industry for over 35 years we have developed a superior understanding of its uniqueness and the needs of its key stakeholders.

Although we have the distinction of being a large firm in this practice area, we have never lost the small firm approach that has been the foundation of our success.

Providing Superior Value

Board members and property managers alike know that they can rely on our representation to protect them from unit owner scrutiny due to our robust planning processes that are key to us timely completing all engagements well in advance of their annual meetings.

Two-Way Communication

We promptly respond to all inquiries and regularly keep clients updated.

Quality Control

We utilize exceptional in-house quality-control standards.

Benchmark of Excellence

We have streamlined our internal processes to help us quickly deliver on deadlines.
